WELCOME TO STANBOROUGH PARK CHURCH

"And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

CSMC NOTICE: the site management committee welcomes new leaders and continuing leaders, acknowledging the sterling work done by many over the years to support our church and local community. One area we intend to seek better understanding of is who holds keys to the building so this can be properly recorded. The list we hold is dated showing people as key holders who are no longer in post and no longer attend Stanborough Park church. If this applies to you, please return your keys to the Centre Manager, Rob Page or to Bernell Bussue so the keys can be passed to those needing them. It would be appreciated if this could be done as quickly as possible. Thanks in advance and rich blessings for 2022.

YOUNG ADULTS SABBATH SCHOOL is meeting every Sabbath in the Pine Room with Jackson and Tiwa leading the lesson. It is also possible to connect via Zoom. Details on the eBulletin.

In donating the flowers in the church Mick and Chari Lilley thank the Lord for 20 years of happy marriage. They pray that He will continue to help them grow in their love for God and love for each other. The church family congratulate Mick and Chari on their anniversary.

REMEMBER AND CELEBRATE (DEVOTIONAL)

“[Jesus] took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me.” Luke 22:19

On December 6, 1907, explosions rocked a small community in the US state of West Virginia, producing one of the worst disasters in the history of the coal-mining industry. Some 360 miners were killed, and it’s been estimated that this horrific tragedy left behind about 250 widows and 1,000 children without fathers. Historians maintain that the memorial service became the seedbed from which the celebration of Father’s Day in the US would eventually grow. Out of great loss came remembrance and—eventually—celebration.

The greatest tragedy in human history occurred when human beings crucified their Creator. Yet, that dark moment also produced both remembrance and celebration. The night before He would go to the cross, Jesus took the elements of Israel’s Passover and created His own memorial celebration. Luke’s record describes the scene this way: “And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, ‘This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me’ ” (Luke 22:19).

Still today, whenever we take communion, we honor His great, unflinching love for us—remembering the cost of our rescue and celebrating the gift of life His sacrifice produced. As Charles Wesley said in his great hymn, “Amazing love! How can it be that Thou, my God, shouldst die for me?”
